John & Mary Bowles Lynch

First settled in 1757, Lynchburg was named for its founder, John Lynch, who started a ferry service across the James River.

HISTORY

Point of Honor

Point of Honor

112 Cabell Street • Lynchburg, VA

434-455-6226 • www.PointOfHonor.org

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, Point of Honor is a beautiful, two-story Federal style mansion, built in 1815. The property boasts scenic views of downtown Lynchburg and the James River. Its most famous occupant was George Cabell, friend of Thomas Jefferson and personal physician to Patrick Henry. Come experience early 19th life with tours through the furnished home, gardens, kitchen dependency and Carriage House Gift Shop. Open Monday - Saturday 10am to 4pm and Sunday noon to 4pm. Check regarding holiday open schedules.

Anne Spencer House & Garden

Anne Spencer House & Garden

1313 Pierce Street • Lynchburg, VA

434-845-1313 • www.AnneSpencerMuseum.com

A Virginia Landmark on the National Register of Historic Places, this is the home of internationally acclaimed Harlem Renaissance poet and Civil Rights leader, Anne Spencer, who wrote on any available surface, including the walls of her home! During her lifetime, she shared intellectual respect and repartee with notables such as opera stars Marian Anderson and Paul Robeson and Civil Rights luminaries Thurgood Marshall and the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. The house is open by appointment but the beautifully restored gardens, which contain her famous writing cottage, Edankraal, are open daily without charge.

Old City Cemetery

401 Taylor Street • Lynchburg, VA

434-847-1465 • www.GraveGarden.org

Established in 1806, the Old City Cemetery is the oldest municipal cemetery in Virginia still in use today. This extraordinary 27-acre public garden and "history park" is a village of five small museums touting the stories of the diverse population of the nearly 20,000 buried here including the graves of over 2,200 Civil War soldiers from 14 states. The grounds are filled with hundreds of varieties of native and heirloom plants, including the largest public collection of antique roses in the state of Virginia. Gates are open dawn to dusk, every day of the year.

Old City Cemetery

Historic Sandusky & Civil War Center

757 Sandusky Drive • Lynchburg, VA

434-832-0162 • www.HistoricSandusky.org

A registered Virginia Historic Landmark and listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the Sandusky mansion stands as one of the finest examples of Federal style architecture in Virginia's Piedmont region. It served as Union headquarters during the Battle of Lynchburg and now serves as a museum to tell the stories of the Civil War, especially the Battle of Lynchburg and Hunters Raid and is a Civil War Trails tour site.

Historic Sandusky

Miller-Claytor House & Garden

Riverside Park at Miller-Claytor Lane
Lynchburg, VA
bit.ly/MillerClaytor

The Miller-Claytor House, erected in 1791 for tavern keeper John Miller, is Lynchburg's only remaining 18th-century town house. Serving as an historic exhibit, the two-story frame building is an intriguing example of urban vernacular architecture. Thomas Jefferson allegedly proved to the owner of the house's garden that tomatoes were not poisonous by eating the fruit. It is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and located in Riverside Park on Miller-Claytor Lane. Open by appointment with garden open to the public from dawn to dusk.

South River Meeting House

5810 Fort Avenue
Lynchburg, VA
434-239-2548

The South River Meeting House was organized in 1757 when Sarah Lynch gave two acres of land for the first framed structure. Within 25 years, increased membership made a larger building necessary and John Lynch, founder of Lynchburg, gave 10 acres of land for this now restored stone building. Adjacent to the Meeting House is his grave site. Self-guided tours available daily.

South River Meeting House

Fort Early & Jubal Early Monument

3511 Memorial Avenue
Lynchburg, VA

On the National Register of Historic Places, Fort Early is an American Civil War earthen fort, constructed as part of the outer defenses of Lynchburg under the command of Lt. General Jubal Early. It was critical in the holding of the city during the Battle of Lynchburg. In 1919 a 17-foot granite obelisk was erected to honor the confederate general. Grounds are open year-round from dusk to dawn.

#LynchburgVA

Since the time of Thomas Jefferson, grape cultivation has been a true Virginia commodity, and Lynchburg is surrounded by award-winning wineries and vineyards in every direction. Take a tour and sample the goods of these agricultural estates and bring out the wine lover in you. The glistening waters of the James River and the nearby Blue Ridge Mountains offer an unparalleled backdrop while taking in the many flavors of the region. Plan your visit to enjoy the Thomas Jefferson Wine Festival held annually in November on the beautiful grounds of Jefferson's distinctive retreat home, Poplar Forest or visit during other wine festivals held throughout the year!

Kid-Friendly Lynchburg, Virginia

Sitting in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains, historic Lynchburg, Virginia is a surprisingly fun place for families to spend a couple of days. There are numerous bike paths and green spaces criss-crossing the city, and one of my favorite...
